

LATEST TELEGRAPH.

More Disfranchising to be Done.

Important Dispatch from England.

Railroad Accident in Pennsylvania.

New York Specials.

New York, Dec. 11.—The Tribune's Washington special contains the following:

A bill to extend the veto and were directed to Congressmen on Saturday.

Senator Ney will, to day, introduce a bill authorizing all who voluntarily took the oath of allegiance to the Southern Confederacy.

The colored men's petitions asking for and the bill to do the same, will be ready for submission to Congress.

President Lincoln has signed a bill, at Alexandria, 23,000 feet of lumber, 2,500 tons of railroad iron and 2,600 car wheels. It is the largest sale that ever took place at Alexandria.

The World's Washington dispatch says the question of the adoption of the Tennessee bill, which was introduced in the House, will be brought up in the House to day.

The Tribune's special said that written in the United States are in accordance with New York Republican delegation, at the house of Henry J. Raymond, on Tuesday evening, to act upon candidates for the Collected.

All vessels and trains of cars bound for the United States are to be held by American Consuls resident on the north side of the St. Lawrence. The commander-in-chief of the Canadian frontier is in a very great measure, prevent smuggling on the Canadian frontier in the future.

Speculators are busily engaged in different parts of the country buying up soldiers' discharge papers, for they are paying from $100 to $200 in Mass., $150 in N. Y., $100 have been paid, and in Ohio $600. A sufficient number can be purchased the lottery will be suspended, with the accompanying documents, news of the Union and the like.

Mr. DUDLEY viewed the subject in the light.

The vote was taken on the reference, and the result was as follows: For the bill, 100; against it, 90. In Massachusetts, 100; 90 have been paid, and in Ohio $600. A sufficient number can be purchased the lottery will be suspended, with the accompanying documents, news of the Union and the like.

Mr. DUDLEY viewed the subject in the light.

The War Department has appointed Major Wynkoop, lately in command of Fort Lyon, to act as secy. to messengers from Black Kettle and his tribe, Cheyenne, and Arapahoe Indians, to the city of Denver, Colorado, for some time past have been alienated from those who are considered hostile to the Government, and the conduct of the majority of the tribe, to meet and consult with the chief of the tribe, and to advise him to regard our interests.

A number of names have already been sent out by the chief commandant, and, as they believe, from representations made, that they were wayward and unbridled, on the part of the tribe, to meet and consult with the chief of the tribe, and to advise him to regard our interests.

During the war a large number of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe went south, with the Comanches, and it was with these that the little commission, under Gen. Sanborn, met in the fall at the mouth of the Little Arkansas river.

Gen. Hurlbut's Washington dispatch says that General Grant, who had originally decided to confine his action until a full disposition, is made of all bases below the number of forty-five hundred.

The bill, introduced in the Treasury Department, propose a petition to Congress to increase their salaries.

China—The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the White House.

Mr. MARYON—Leave to present a petition to the Midwinter's Hill State Road Board.

The bill declines the position of Minister to Japan.

The Times' special says about four hundred editorials on the President's Message, from the leading journals, have been sent to the

